

JOURNAL OF CITY LAW

Editorial for vol. 08-2 (2016)

The Journal of City Law ranked by MEC / CAPES as Qualis A1, Law, now quarterly, in this volume 08, number 02, has the great joy to announce that was included in the Emerging Sources Citation Index of Web of Science (<http://science.thomsonreuters.com/cgi-bin/jrnlst/jlresults.cgi?PC=MASTER&ISSN=2317-7721>) the Web of Science is the largest online global index of scientific information, maintained by Thomson Reuters and integrated in ISI Web of Knowledge, Wok.

In this number we also have the pleasure of publishing the article "The symbolic capital of Medellin and urban interventions in the favelas of Rio" by Professor Pasqualino Roman Magnavita, Emeritus Professor at the Federal University of Bahia - UFBA and Any Brito Leal Ivo, College Professor of Architecture and Urbanism of the Federal University of Bahia - UFBA. In this article "The symbolic capital of Medellin and urban interventions in the favelas of Rio" is seeked to reflect on some interventions and projects visited in Medellin, presented worldwide as icons of a new time. These interventions become benchmarks of urban transformation projects and advance as a constituent stock of a city dynamically inserted into a security policy globally publicized and recognized as exemplary. This text search not only the description and analysis of these projects, but also aims to establish links to the recent intervention by the Brazilian State in the favelas of Rio de Janeiro, as part of a public safety action based on repression / territorial pacification - that in many ways, especially the structural, relate to Medellin.

As the numbers before published, in this volume 08, number 02, we published twelve (12) original articles, and 03 articles of foreign teachers: The Los Ríos Region as sub-national political project: a look at the process of a new region by Joseph Escalda Navarro, professor at the Universidad Austral de Chile, Chile, Francisco Mauricio Vega-Duarte, professor at the Catholic University of Temuco, Chile and Juan Carlos Miranda Castillo, professor at the Universidad Austral de Chile, Chile; On the incompatibility between the human right to knowledge and scientific progress and the current global regime of intellectual property by Jorge Rodríguez Guerra, professor at the University of La Laguna, Santa Cruz de Tenerife (Canary Islands), Spain and Violence and social cohesion, an approach to the construction of an index of social cohesion. Case Study commune Dosquebradas 11, 2013 by Williams Gilberto Jiménez García, doctorando en Ciencias Sociales y Social at the Universidad Nacional de Colombia, Colombia.

In our Essays Section we published three (03) unpublished essays, two by foreign teachers: The new "civitate dei" - family good into the Portuguese and Brazilian law and family dimension of human dignity, Monica Roman and Martinez Milk Campos, professor at the University Portucalense, Portugal and Rui Damas de Moraes, Master in Portucalense University, Portugal and "Field workers in Mexico. Na excluded labour sector by Verónica

Alejandra Curiel Sandoval, a researcher professor at Universidad Autónoma Metropolitana - UAM, Mexico.

In this number of the Journal we also expanded our body of our peer reviewers / evaluators, with the inclusion of many teachers from many states of the country and many foreign teachers.

We also publish, for consultation of readers, the links to the various national and international databases of magazines and journals where our Journal of City Law is indexed. Thanks, as always, to all readers, authors, reviewers and staff for their cooperation and trust and always excellent work.

We remember always that the submissions to the Journal of City Law are permanent and must be performed by the system directly on the journal page.

Good reading to all!

Mauricio Mota

Editor of the Journal of City Law