

JOURNAL OF CITY LAW

Editorial for vol. 08-1 (2016)

The Journal of City Law, ranked by MEC / CAPES as Qualis A1, law, in this volume 08, number 01, the first edition of the year 2016, now quarterly, is pleased to publish the article " On The Promotion Of The Right To Housing: A Study Based Upon Urban Policies " by the Journal Editorial Advisor Teacher Joshua Mastrodi Neto, of the Pontifical Catholic University of Campinas - PUC-Campinas and Suzana Maria Loureiro Silveira Zaccara, scholarship from the Foundation of São Paulo (FAPESP) at the Pontifical Catholic University of Campinas - PUC-Campinas. The article " On The Promotion Of The Right To Housing: A Study Based Upon Urban Policies " seeks to affirm, from the housing problems in the city of Campinas, the possibility of promoting the right to housing through the Minha Casa Minha Vida, in empty urban spaces using the legal-urban instrument called Special Zones of Social Interest. Are identified the legal provisions which requires the Housing Production Social Interest in Campinas, contained in its Municipal Plan and the extent to which the available urban policy instruments are used by the public administrator to plan and build the city from the right to housing and turn it to the public interest.

As the numbers before published, in this volume 08, number 01, we published thirteen (13) original articles, which 02 articles are of foreign teachers: " Rehabilitation Of The Historic Center Of Santa Marta And Barranquilla: Public Policy, Economic Dynamism And Conservation Of Heritage Spaces In Tension", by Natalia Margarita Ospina Medina, anthropologist of the University of Magdalena, Colombia and Master in Urban-Regional Planning for the University of Buenos Aires - UBA and Yiseth Paola Mejia Martinez, also anthropologist of the University of Magdalena, Colombia and co investigator in cultural education of Parque del Caribbean- Museo del Caribe, Colombia; " Legality, Legitimacy , Constitutionality And Conventionality Of Democratic Judgment In Mexico : A Cause Of Legal Disruption" of Joaquin Ordoñez Sedeño, coordinator of advanced studies and full-time research professor at the Faculty of Law of the Universidad Autónoma del Estado de México, Mexico.

In our Essays Section we published 03 (three) unpublished essays: " Master Plan, social function of property and democratic management: an analysis of Complementary Law no. 253/12 of the Municipality of Palmas / TO ", by Vinicius Pinheiro Marques and Suyene Monteiro Rocha, both professors at the Federal University of Tocantins - UFT; " Urban Sustainable Development And The Master Plan Of Natal/RN", by Magdi Ahmed Ibrahim Alloufa, Biosciences Department doctor professor at the Federal University of Rio Grande do Norte - UFRN and Henry Eufrásio Santana Junior, Master in Development and Environment doctorate in Development and Environment, both from Federal University of Rio Grande do Norte - UFRN and " The Right To The City: Efficiency Of The National Solid Waste Policy In The Perspective Of Economic Analysis Of Law", by Eloi Rodrigues Barreto Pethechust, Master and Ph.D. in economic and Environmental law from the Pontifical Catholic University of Paraná - PUC-PR, and Deligia Maria Silva Melo Casimiro, a professor of undergraduate and graduate FAP - Juazeiro, EC, URCA / Crato, CE, and PhD in Economic and Environmental Law by Dinter Pontifical Catholic University of Paraná - PUC-PR / URCA / EC.

In this issue of the Journal we also expanded our body from our peer reviewers / evaluators, with the inclusion of many teachers from many states in the country as well as many foreign teachers.

We also publish for immediate consultation of readers, the links of the various national and international indexers and journals where our Journal of City Law is indexed. Thanks, as always, to all readers, authors, reviewers and staff for their cooperation and trust and always excellent work. We remember always that the submissions to the Journal of City Law are permanent and must be performed by the system directly on the journal page.

Good reading to all!

Mauricio Mota

Journal of City Law Editor